We protect your life

Certificate of Authenticity

With the certificate of authenticity we confirm that your product CU7 Innotec was handmade in Austria, according to the highest quality standards, from domestic pine wood. The frequencies used in the process have been optimally tuned and tested for the respective area of application. The love for the products guarantees that every employee is fully dedicated and passionate about the production of each product.

Together we want to give people a sustainable better life with our products.
